

and demonstrated the state-wide interest now being taken in the race in Louisville for Democratic supremacy.

Close the Blind Tigers.

The transparencies protesting against "Imported Labor" and lawless blind tigers met with the approval of the thousands who fringed the sidewalks on the route. They are demands which struck home, not only to the men who viewed the column, but the women as well. These spectators saw in the promises of the Democrats to close the lawless blind tigers the safety and sure protection of the workingman and his little family that took a night off to view the parade in the protest against foreign labor chance to make an honest, decent living without running into competition with cheap, skilled and low standard-of-living laborers.

All Speakers Looked After.

Norton L. Goldsmith had an automobile and nine carriages had light to carry the speakers in the parade. The carriages were all lined up in front of the Seelbach as early as 7 o'clock and were held in waiting to 8 o'clock. In the column which headed the column of speakers were Mrs. Goldsmith, Congressman Ollie James, Ward Headley and Al M. Marrett. In carriages that followed were former United States Senator James B. McCreary, Hon. John W. Vreeland, Congressman Harvey Hehn, M. A. Martin, of Frankfort, Ind.; Judge J. Flem Gordon, Congressman R. T. Thompson, Hon. L. Elliott Baker, of Princeton; Judge T. J. Nunn and Judge John M. Lassing, of the Kentucky Court of Appeals; G. Allison Holland, Congressman A. O. Stanley, W. A. Nelson and H. C. Myers, Congressmen; Senator T. T. Wyatt, of Logan county; James Garnett, of Columbus; R. M. Salmon, J. A. Sullivan, of Richmond; Charles Fennell, of Lexington; Congressman Frank O. Shadley, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Congressman W. P. Kimball.

The speakers expressed their thanks in unmeasured terms to Norton L. Goldsmith for his right for the concessions shown during the barbecue and at the parade. They said they were under many obligations to him for what he had done for their entertainment and comfort while at the barbecue.

Johnson County Sends Delegation.

Johnson county sent a big delegation to the barbecue yesterday and they will remain over to-day. Among those in attendance from that far-off Republican county were W. S. Boyd, J. P. Mells, Kendall Wells, John Haws, Don Preston, John Wood, W. A. Wood, Miller Wells, D. M. Hager, Cook Gregor.

Lexington Came Strong.

The Lexington delegation of Democrats, 200 strong, led by Representatives W. F. Blair, swooped down upon Louisville yesterday morning to attend the Jefferson barbecue and with hearty hand clasps and cheery shouts.

The able lieutenants of Mr. Blair were Wallace A. H. Hayes, W. F. Kimball, Thomas C. Cooke, John Stucky, J. W. Foster, C. O. Lewis, J. Reagan, Paul Shipp, B. L. Baker, Albert Shouse and John McElroy.

For good measure, electioneering on hand to give the time away to the Bluegrass contingent, for they not only made their presence felt on the streets, but were important factors at the barbecue.

FROM SECOND TO JACKSON.

Extended Parade Forming East of Fourth Avenue.

Forming at Second street and Broadway, the second and third divisions of the parade extended nearly up to Jackson street.

This section of the peasant was headed by the Stock Yards Club, more than 200 strong. At the front of the organization was a two-horned and decorated chariot gayly decorated in flags and colors, and hauled by lusty-lunged men. The vehicle was a gayly painted in a big gray mule, and the ends were pulled by two horses.

There were shouts and cries of "Oh, you mule! Oh! you stockyards," by the yard and by the hundred, according to the movement. Behind the muled chariot came a row of ten-horned carriages in which rode a number of the "Bourbon" Democrats. Following the chariot came the mounted men, and the ends were pulled by two horses, directing the movements of the floats, various marching clubs and looking after details.

The Democratic clubs of the Sixth and Seventh wards—Southern, North End, South and Seventh Ward, South Louisville, Oakdale and Highland Park—were out strong.

Chariots Attract Attention.

Then came the two chariots from the Hippodrome, which were spired animals which reminded one of the Ben Hur period. Urge's band accompanied the Fifth division. It kept several patrolmen busy keeping the crowd back from the cage of Cherokee.

While the chariot was a number of the "Bourbon" Democrats. Following the chariot came the mounted men, and the ends were pulled by two horses.

There were shouts and cries of "Oh, you mule! Oh! you stockyards," by the yard and by the hundred, according to the movement. Behind the muled chariot came a row of ten-horned carriages in which rode a number of the "Bourbon" Democrats. Following the chariot came the mounted men, and the ends were pulled by two horses.

The Democratic clubs of the Sixth and Seventh wards—Southern, North End, South and Seventh Ward, South Louisville, Oakdale and Highland Park—were out strong.

Chariots Attract Attention.

Then came the two chariots from the Hippodrome, which were spired animals which reminded one of the Ben Hur period. Urge's band accompanied the Fifth division. It kept several patrolmen busy keeping the crowd back from the cage of Cherokee.

While the chariot was a number of the "Bourbon" Democrats. Following the chariot came the mounted men, and the ends were pulled by two horses.

The Democratic clubs of the Sixth and Seventh wards—Southern, North End, South and Seventh Ward, South Louisville, Oakdale and Highland Park—were out strong.

Chariots Attract Attention.

Then came the two chariots from the Hippodrome, which were spired animals which reminded one of the Ben Hur period. Urge's band accompanied the Fifth division. It kept several patrolmen busy keeping the crowd back from the cage of Cherokee.

While the chariot was a number of the "Bourbon" Democrats. Following the chariot came the mounted men, and the ends were pulled by two horses.

The Democratic clubs of the Sixth and Seventh wards—Southern, North End, South and Seventh Ward, South Louisville, Oakdale and Highland Park—were out strong.

Chariots Attract Attention.

Then came the two chariots from the Hippodrome, which were spired animals which reminded one of the Ben Hur period. Urge's band accompanied the Fifth division. It kept several patrolmen busy keeping the crowd back from the cage of Cherokee.

While the chariot was a number of the "Bourbon" Democrats. Following the chariot came the mounted men, and the ends were pulled by two horses.

The Democratic clubs of the Sixth and Seventh wards—Southern, North End, South and Seventh Ward, South Louisville, Oakdale and Highland Park—were out strong.

Chariots Attract Attention.

Then came the two chariots from the Hippodrome, which were spired animals which reminded one of the Ben Hur period. Urge's band accompanied the Fifth division. It kept several patrolmen busy keeping the crowd back from the cage of Cherokee.

While the chariot was a number of the "Bourbon" Democrats. Following the chariot came the mounted men, and the ends were pulled by two horses.

The Democratic clubs of the Sixth and Seventh wards—Southern, North End, South and Seventh Ward, South Louisville, Oakdale and Highland Park—were out strong.

Chariots Attract Attention.

A Few of the Democrats Gathered at State Fair Grounds Yesterday

SECOND DAY TO BE A CORKER

Ollie James Will Tell a Few Democratic Facts.

A. O. Stanley and Others On the Speakers' Programme.

Big Barbecue Dinner Free To the Thousands.

SHOW IN THE BIG RING, TOO.

Speaking for To-day.

Speaking at the Jeffersonian barbecue to-day will be from two stands only, owing to the fact that the east end and west end stands are so far from the center of the grounds. The speaking will begin promptly at 11 o'clock this morning at both stands. The following persons will preside at the speaking stands and introduce the speakers:

At Circle Stand—Judge Shadley, former Senator and Judge James F. Gregory.

At Pavilion Stand—Judge S. B. Kirby and Mule Weisinger.

List of Speakers To-day.

AT CIRCLE STAND.

Congressman Ollie M. James, of Marion, Ky. The Hon. Lavega Clements, of Cincinnati, Ohio. The Hon. George S. Wilson, of Sturgis, Ky. The Hon. Wallace Muir, of Lexington, Ky. The Hon. B. M. Arnett, of Nicholasville, Ky. Congressman A. O. Stanley, of Madisonville, Ky. The Hon. Ruby Laffoon, of Madisonville, Ky. The Hon. W. C. G. Hobbs, of Lexington, Ky. The Hon. G. Allison Holland, of Lexington, Ky. The Hon. H. Southall, Jr., of Hopkinsville, Ky.

AT PAVILION STAND.

Congressman Ben Johnson, of Bardstown, Ky. Congressman R. Y. Thomas, of Covington, Ky. The Hon. J. Embry Allen, of Cincinnati, Ohio, of the Eighth district, who also will make an address. Mr. Helm attended the barbecue yesterday and he said that he was utterly carried away with the spirit of the people and the number of them in attendance.

Congressmen Ben Johnson, J. C. Cantrell, of Covington, Ky. Congressman Harvey Hehn, of Stanford, Ky. The Hon. W. P. Thorne, of Emeryville, Ky. The Hon. J. E. Baker, of Princeton, Ky.

Young Folks Married.

Courier-Journal.

Published
DAILY, SUNDAY AND WEEKLY.

Office, cor. Fourth Ave. and Green St.

A Consolidation of
THE LOUISVILLE DAILY JOURNAL
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 24, 1830.
LOUISVILLE DAILY DEMOCRAT.
Louisville, Ky., 1843.MORNING COURIER
Louisville, Ky., June 3, 1844.First issued as the Courier-Journal November 8, 1869.Rates.
Daily edition, one year.....$00
Daily and Sunday edition, one month.....$75
Daily and Sunday, one month.....$75
Weekly edition, one year.....100To City Subscribers
Entered at the Louisville Post-office as second-class matter, Aug. 10, 1875
16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 24 pages.....1 cent
25, 26, 27 and 28 pages.....2 cents
29, 30 and 31 pages.....4 cents
Sunday edition, with magazine.....4 centsCommunications
All communications should be addressed to the Courier-Journal, not to individual writers. If writers who submit MSS. for publication wish to have their articles returned, they should enclose postage and stamp. The editors are glad to examine MSS., but return postage must be included.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 1, 1909

Business

Tuesday Evening, Aug. 21.—The New York stock market was rather dull and inactive, ending on a little in the final hour under the leadership of Union Pacific.

Money on call was firm at 24 to 25 per cent, ruling at 24. Time loans were firm and active at 3 to 4 per cent. Sterling exchange was weaker.

The Chicago wheat market ruled strong, closing 4 to 5 per cent higher. Corn closed 4 to 5 per cent higher, oats 4 to 5 per cent, and provisions barely steady.

The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 4 to 6 points after a further slight advance developed an easier tone and closed 3 to 3 1/2 points below opening prices.

The Chicago cattle and sheep markets were steady. The hog market was 50 to 60 higher.

Rumors of Railroads

The air is thick with rumors of new railroads down in Western Kentucky. Paducah has hopes of getting some three or four roads from across the Ohio River, but only one of these is in immediate prospect. Hopkinsville hears that something is to be done with the Tennessee Central and that a corps of engineers has been ordered to survey a line to Paducah. The excitement over these possibilities has spread over into Tennessee, and Nashville comes to the front with a story that the Burlington is seeking a connection with the Atlantic coast via Nashville.

The extension plan, according to the Nashville report, is something like this: The Tennessee Central will be the connecting link between the Burlington system at Paducah and the Seaboard Air Line at Rutherfordton, N. C. This would give an air line from Chicago, St. Louis and the Northwest through Nashville, connecting with the Knoxville, Sevierville and Eastern, and then over the Seaboard Air Line to Wilmington. The Tennessee Central will build from Hopkinsville to Paducah and connect with the Burlington system at Metropolis, Ill. The Tennessee Central's outlet to the coast will be through Harriman over a new line to the Seaboard Air Line.

The statement given out in St. Paul by James J. Hill, who declared that no new combinations were being considered, would appear to put a quietus on the elaborate scheme announced from Nashville. This statement, supplemented by the denial of W. J. Oliver, owner of the Knoxville, Sevierville and Eastern road, indicates that some one has been "smoking up," a practice that is not uncommon where talk of new railroads is prevalent. Mr. Oliver is frank enough to assert that he believes the plan a good one, but he says there have been no negotiations looking to a deal with the Burlington, directly or indirectly. Mr. Oliver is building an independent line. At present he is pretty thoroughly occupied with the details of construction and is not giving much thought to possible connections.

The Tennessee Central, at least that portion of it between Nashville and Hopkinsville, is on the market. There have been rumors of late that the Nashville-Hopkinsville branch would again pass under control of the Illinois Central, which formerly operated it under a lease. The Illinois Central's lease was surrendered July 1, 1908. The Frisco system made a survey some years ago from Hopkinsville to Paducah and the report that a coming survey is to follow this old line lends some color to the belief that the Frisco is to absorb the Tennessee Central. Among those well posted in railroad matters this is regarded as a not improbable combination. The Frisco now has a line, the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, to Joppaton, Ill., on the Ohio River, sixteen miles below Paducah. That it will be extended to Paducah in the near future is highly probable. To fill the gap between Paducah and Hopkinsville, however, would be an expensive undertaking. The Tennessee and Cumberland rivers would have to be crossed and much of the territory that would have to be covered is rough.

The passing of the Tennessee Central to the Frisco would mean the entrance to Kentucky of another great railway system with a mileage, in the State, of no insignificant proportions. That both the Burlington and the Frisco will come into Kentucky some day is altogether probable. That the Burlington is already on the way seems assured from the fact that construction is in progress on the extension from Herrin, Ill., to Metropolis and that soundings have been made for a bridge across the Ohio River. That the Burlington is building toward Paducah; that the Tennessee Central is on the market and that a mysterious survey has been ordered from Hopkinsville to Paducah seem to be at present about the only tangible facts that can be evolved from the mass of rumors agitating the citizens of Western Kentucky and a considerable portion of Tennessee.

The Democratic Demonstration.
The town is full of Democrats, who are not backward in letting it be known that they are Democrats and that they are here. That much was amply demonstrated yesterday and last night.

It is true that some of these Democrats do not vote in Louisville. They come as welcome representatives of the Democrats of Kentucky, bearing messages of good will and good cheer from the Democracy of the State to the Democracy of the State's metropolis. Their presence is, therefore, doubly welcome and helpful, attesting as it does the enthusiastic sympathy of that element of the party which when united with the party in Louisville makes Kentucky as Invincibly Democratic as Texas.

To City Subscribers
Entered at the Louisville Post-office as second-class matter, Aug. 10, 1875
16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 24 pages.....1 cent
25, 26, 27 and 28 pages.....2 cents
29, 30 and 31 pages.....4 cents
Sunday edition, with magazine.....4 centsCommunications
All communications should be addressed to the Courier-Journal, not to individual writers. If writers who submit MSS. for publication wish to have their articles returned, they should enclose postage and stamp. The editors are glad to examine MSS., but return postage must be included.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 1, 1909

Business

Tuesday Evening, Aug. 21.—The New York stock market was rather dull and inactive, ending on a little in the final hour under the leadership of Union Pacific.

Money on call was firm at 24 to 25 per cent, ruling at 24. Time loans were firm and active at 3 to 4 per cent. Sterling exchange was weaker.

The Chicago wheat market ruled strong, closing 4 to 5 per cent higher. Corn closed 4 to 5 per cent higher, oats 4 to 5 per cent, and provisions barely steady.

The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 4 to 6 points after a further slight advance developed an easier tone and closed 3 to 3 1/2 points below opening prices.

The Chicago cattle and sheep markets were steady. The hog market was 50 to 60 higher.

Rumors of Railroads

The air is thick with rumors of new railroads down in Western Kentucky. Paducah has hopes of getting some three or four roads from across the Ohio River, but only one of these is in immediate prospect. Hopkinsville hears that something is to be done with the Tennessee Central and that a corps of engineers has been ordered to survey a line to Paducah. The excitement over these possibilities has spread over into Tennessee, and Nashville comes to the front with a story that the Burlington is seeking a connection with the Atlantic coast via Nashville.

The extension plan, according to the Nashville report, is something like this: The Tennessee Central will be the connecting link between the Burlington system at Paducah and the Seaboard Air Line at Rutherfordton, N. C. This would give an air line from Chicago, St. Louis and the Northwest through Nashville, connecting with the Knoxville, Sevierville and Eastern, and then over the Seaboard Air Line to Wilmington. The Tennessee Central will build from Hopkinsville to Paducah and connect with the Burlington system at Metropolis, Ill. The Tennessee Central's outlet to the coast will be through Harriman over a new line to the Seaboard Air Line.

The statement given out in St. Paul by James J. Hill, who declared that no new combinations were being considered, would appear to put a quietus on the elaborate scheme announced from Nashville. This statement, supplemented by the denial of W. J. Oliver, owner of the Knoxville, Sevierville and Eastern road, indicates that some one has been "smoking up," a practice that is not uncommon where talk of new railroads is prevalent. Mr. Oliver is frank enough to assert that he believes the plan a good one, but he says there have been no negotiations looking to a deal with the Burlington, directly or indirectly. Mr. Oliver is building an independent line. At present he is pretty thoroughly occupied with the details of construction and is not giving much thought to possible connections.

The passing of the Tennessee Central to the Frisco would mean the entrance to Kentucky of another great railway system with a mileage, in the State, of no insignificant proportions. That both the Burlington and the Frisco will come into Kentucky some day is altogether probable. That the Burlington is already on the way seems assured from the fact that construction is in progress on the extension from Herrin, Ill., to Metropolis and that soundings have been made for a bridge across the Ohio River. That the Burlington is building toward Paducah; that the Tennessee Central is on the market and that a mysterious survey has been ordered from Hopkinsville to Paducah seem to be at present about the only tangible facts that can be evolved from the mass of rumors agitating the citizens of Western Kentucky and a considerable portion of Tennessee.

The Fuller bill will not seriously inconvenience Alabamians for any length of time. But it makes the State somewhat ridiculous.

Kentucky's Coal Production.
For the first time in ten years, Kentucky's coal production in 1908 showed a falling off from the previous year. The total decrease amounted to 506,571 short tons. The value decreased $107,376, and the average price per ton declined from $1.06 to $1.01. The total production was 10,246,553 short tons, with a spot value of $10,317,182.

These facts and figures are gleaned from advance sheets from the annual report of the United States Geological Survey. An interesting feature of the decreased output is that nearly all the shortage was in the Western Kentucky field. In the eastern field the decline was only 11,294 short tons, and the counties of Bell, Johnson, Lee, Pike and Whitley showed substantial increases.

Buttermilk In Demand.
An Eastern paper says that buttermilk has become a popular drink at the leading barrooms of New York. One of the principal hotels sells nearly a thousand drinks of buttermilk daily at its bar; another hotel dispenses an average of fifty quarts a day; a number of cafés sell as much as three hundred to four hundred glasses of it in the course of a day's business.

Senator James R. McCreary, of Rich mond, is spending the week at the Seaboard to attend the Jeffersonian barbecue.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Hyland Russell will leave this week for Detroit, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grace. From there they will take a trip through the Canadian lakes.

Miss Evelyn Todd, of Shelbyville, arrived yesterday for a short visit to friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Caperton, who have been spending the summer in New London, are now in New York and are expected home the middle of September.

The Lexington Herald says:

"Miss Bessie Daingerfield entertained

Saunder's, with a delightful luncheon at the Country Club in honor of Miss Margaret and Jean Bennett and Miss Fulton of Louisville, and Mrs. C. L. Dorman, of Lexington, who were guests of the Gleaners Mission in Lee County, to Louisville, and were the guests for the day. It was a delightful gathering of old friends to meet them, and the afternoon was much enjoyed. There were beautiful decorations and a delicious course luncheon was served. Miss Elizabeth Daingerfield, and her guests were Misses Bennett, Miss Fulton, Mrs. Dorman, Miss Natalie Richardson, of Omaha, Neb., and Miss Richardson.

Mr. Edwin H. Ferguson has returned from the Grindell, near New London. Mrs. Ferguson and her little daughter will remain a few weeks longer, and return to New York for a stay of several weeks.

Judge J. T. O'Neal and Mrs. O'Neal and Mr. T. O'Neal, Jr., who have been at Waukeena for the past two weeks, will return home Saturday.

Mrs. E. E. Hume, and son, Mr. Edgar Hume, of Frankfort, who have been at The Seabach for a short stay, have returned home yesterday.

Dr. Ewing Marshall and family will return home to-day from Pointe A' Pines, Mich., where they have been spending the summer.

Miss Mary Rogers Lyons, of New York, the wife of the late John H. Lyons, and her grandmother, Mrs. Samuel Clay, in Lexington, will arrive Friday to visit her and Mrs. Mary H. Lyons, who are the daughters of Mrs. H. K. Lyons, of New York, who died recently.

Miss Ella Slack, of Owensboro, who has been the guest of Col. J. B. Payne and Mrs. Payne, in Elizabethtown, and Mrs. Robert Graham here, will return home this morning.

Mrs. E. M. Kettig and Mrs. Kettig have returned from Rosedale, Mich., where they have been the guests of Mrs. John Joseph Kettig at his cottage.

Mr. Bodley Booker, who has been in Ireland, Mich., and in Evanston, Ill., for three weeks, returned home last evening.

Mrs. Lee Garrett, who has been spending the summer with Mrs. Harry Lee at Lyndon, returned to their home in Chicago yesterday.

We cannot say that jokes are scarce.

And he has taught to say.

He simply states that "news is scarce."

And has that item sent.

The means are made

To thus evade

A sad predilection.

I would we luckless humorists,

We alleged funny men,

Could try the ruse

Upon a muse

That's bally now and then.

We cannot say that jokes are scarce.

That we have nothing new.

We must rebuke

And furnish up a few.

Between Doctors.

"Doctor, I want to engage you to look after my practice while I'm on vacation."

"But I'm just out of college, doctor."

"I have had little experience."

"That's all right, my boy. My practice, while large, includes very few people who are actually ill."

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Eastland and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Eastland have returned to Danville after attending the Grotto-Eastland wedding.

Mr. T. C. Truwick and Mrs. Truwick and their daughter and Miss Willie Kendrick will move in the city to-day from their summer home in the mountains.

On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Truwick and Miss Willie Kendrick will go to New York and Atlantic City for a two weeks' stay.

Mr. Henry C. Walbeck returned yesterday from Ottawa Beach, Mich. Mrs. Walbeck and her granddaughter, Miss Evelyn Marshall Jones, will return Friday.

Miss Anna C. Roth and Miss Ida Hubbard have returned home after an extended trip through California. On their return they visited the exposition and Yellowstone Park.

Every cloud has a silver lining. Purveyors of souvenir post cards in Germany say that the Payne bill will reduce the sale of post cards in America.

An earthquake in the canal zone. And the mouth as quickly as the butter melts between them. It is just possible that hoochans and buttermilk are not heavenly to certain contrary creatures, or that "punkin'" bread, or "cracklin'" bread might not awaken tender emotions in the breasts of a negligible number of barbarian invaders of Southern soil. But to ask anyone nearer to Dixie Land than Chicago to believe that there lived and died in Georgia one individual who never ate any product of corn is to ask the current of the Nile to turn toward Nyanga, the Mississippi to find its outlet through the Chicago drainage canal, the tides to cease to ebb and flow, the plow to abandon their belief in the immortality of the soul and their hope of reward in Paradise. It is to ask that the Fuller bill will not seriously interfere with the accomplishment of his ends.

The Fuller bill will not seriously inconvenience Alabamians for any length of time. But it makes the State somewhat ridiculous.

The Kentucky Coal Production.
For the first time in ten years, Kentucky's coal production in 1908 showed a falling off from the previous year. The total decrease amounted to 506,571 short tons. The value decreased $107,376, and the average price per ton declined from $1.06 to $1.01. The total production was 10,246,553 short tons, with a spot value of $10,317,182.

These facts and figures are gleaned from advance sheets from the annual report of the United States Geological Survey.

An interesting feature of the decreased output is that nearly all the shortage was in the Western Kentucky field.

In the eastern field the decline was only 11,294 short tons, and the counties of Bell, Johnson, Lee, Pike and Whitley showed substantial increases.

Very probably pellagra, or whatever it may be that is epidemic, infectious, contagious or sporadic in the South, is not due to the causes assigned by the ignorant masses of scientists who have been instrumental in causing "literature" to be sent out from Washington charging it to corn meal. But science in seeking to disprove the theory advanced must confine itself to credible statements.

Mrs. William Thorpe, who has been spending the summer in Chautauqua, is now the guest of friends in New York.

Miss Clay Croxton, of Winchester, who was the guest of Mrs. Merlin O'Neal at her summer home in Peeble Valley, will return home to-day.

Miss Margaret McDowell will leave on Thursday for Frankfort, where she will be the guest of Miss Mary Belle Hobson for the fair dance.

Mrs. William Thorpe, who has been spending the summer in Chautauqua, is now the guest of friends in New York.

Miss Margaret McDowell will leave on Thursday for Frankfort, where she will be the guest of Miss Mary Belle Hobson for the fair dance.

Mrs. William Thorpe, who has been spending the summer in Chautauqua, is now the guest of friends in New York.

Miss Margaret McDowell will leave on Thursday for Frankfort, where she will be the guest of Miss Mary Belle Hobson for the fair dance.

Mrs. William Thorpe, who has been spending the summer in Chautauqua, is now the guest of friends in New York.

Miss Margaret McDowell will leave on Thursday for Frankfort, where she will be the guest of Miss Mary Belle Hobson for the fair dance.

Mrs. William Thorpe, who has been spending the summer in Chautauqua, is now the guest of friends in New York.

Miss Margaret McDowell will leave on Thursday for Frankfort, where she will be the guest of Miss Mary Belle Hobson for the fair dance.

Mrs. William Thorpe, who has been spending the summer in Chautauqua, is now the guest of friends in New York.

Miss Margaret McDowell will leave on Thursday for Frankfort, where she will be the guest of Miss Mary Belle Hobson for the fair dance.

Mrs. William Thorpe, who has been spending the summer in Chautauqua, is now the guest of friends in New York.

Miss Margaret McDowell will leave on Thursday for Frankfort, where she will be the

EUROPEAN RESORTS

BRUSSELS, BELGIUM.

BRUSSELS
A GREAT INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION

AUGMENT and CEMENT the FRIENDSHIP of NATIONS by including in your 1910 EUROPEAN ITINERARY, the GREATEST EXPOSITION OF MODERN TIMES.

Exceeded all previous assemblies in the interest of INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL PROGRESS. THE WORLD'S TRADE epitomized in BRUSSELS. APRIL 25 to OCTOBER, 1910.

New York Office
BRUSSELS INTERNATIONAL AND UNIVERSAL EXHIBITION,
389, FIFTH AV: 1910

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

GALEN HALL

Hotel and Sanatorium.

ATLANTIC CITY, NEW JERSEY. With its elegant comfort and superior table and service, is an ideal place for a long or short stay.

F. L. YOUNG, General Manager.

BRUSSELS, BELGIUM.

With Town & Country Travel Bureau, 280 Fifth Ave., New York. For information on Belgium and Brussels Exposition.

STEAMSHIPS.

Canadian Pacific

ROYAL MAIL STEAMERS.

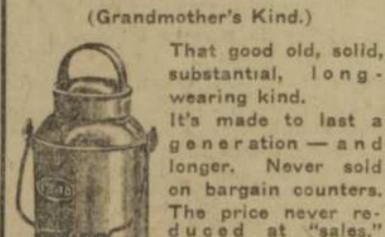

Unexcelled Service and Quickest Time.

Steamer "Montreal" Afloat One Cabin.

Service to the Trade.

Belknap's 1840 Tinware

(Grandmother's Kind.)

Belknap Hdw. & Mfg. Co. (Incorporated.) Distributors to the Trade.

Royal M Carbonated Water

One cannot describe the emotions of delight when you use our Carbonated Water. It is the only Carbonated Water of quality, known for its purity and palatability and general excellence.

PHONE US FOR PRICES.

Royal Magnesian Spring Water Co.

229 S. 2d St. Both Phones.

New York Central Lines (Big Four Route)

INDIANAPOLIS CHICAGO

Chicago Special leaves 8 a. m. daily. Two cars. Last leaves 8:45 p. m. daily.

Two Sleepers, 8:45 p. m. daily.

Stops at 63d, Hyde Park, 43d and 31st.

City Office 112 Fourth Ave. Seventh Floor.

PAUL D. WARREN, Genl. Agt.

Popham & Webster, Trust Bldg., Louisville, Ky. Bldg., Washington, D. C.

MARK SALE OF 100 CARS BY BANQUET

EMPLOYEES OF IRA S. BARNETT HIS GUESTS.

CENTURY PURCHASES IN AUTOMOBILES CELEBRATED.

ALL DELIVERED IN A YEAR.

In a private dining-room on the second floor of the Louisville Hotel last night, nineteen employees of the Kentucky Auto Company, of this city, together with their manager, the proprietor of the establishment, Ira S. Barnett, were in high feather. It was the occasion of the end of the business year, during which the unpreceded number of new and second-hand Cadillacs sold was achieved. A testimonial spread was given by Mr. Barnett as a token of appreciation of the splendid work of his selling and repairing staff.

The three young women employed by the company, Miss M. L. Woodward, Miss M. A. Heib and Miss M. L. Young, were not present. Three of the men, John McElroy, Leslie Johnson and William Kirkpatrick, who had come to remain at the garage, were entertained with basket dinners from the hotel.

Mr. Barnett received his guests in the parlor of the hotel at 7 o'clock, by which time the feast had taken prepared. The menu began with spaghetti, gumbbo, celery and radishes, and proceeded down the line carrying with it baked macaroni, meat loaf, dahl, plums, rice, beans, bread, biscuits, croquettes and green peas. There was Roman punch, cream, broiled spring chicken, browned potatoes and asparagus. Waldorf salad, ice cream, refrigerator, coffee, tea, cake, nuts and cigars. It was a laying on of the odds and was partaken of with a will.

The hotel was surrounded with salesmen, office clerks and mechanics, b. t. of whom were called upon to sell their goods in automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

Before the singing of Old Lang Syne, which broke up the happy affair, the three men who were obliged to remain in the garage called on the telephone and announced that that was the sum of the company and the early sale of the second hundred machines was drunk.

After the appliances had subsided the employees were called upon in their order to give a short speech on the excellence of automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

Local Republican politicians say that in a short time Revenue Collector Bonnell, of the Terre Haute District, will be removed and that his successor will be a Cadillac owner our friends as well as our satisfied customers."

After the appliances had subsided the employees were called upon in their order to give a short speech on the excellence of automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

The three young women employed by the company, Miss M. L. Woodward, Miss M. A. Heib and Miss M. L. Young, were not present. Three of the men, John McElroy, Leslie Johnson and William Kirkpatrick, who had come to remain at the garage, were entertained with basket dinners from the hotel.

Mr. Barnett received his guests in the parlor of the hotel at 7 o'clock, by which time the feast had taken prepared. The menu began with spaghetti, gumbbo, celery and radishes, and proceeded down the line carrying with it baked macaroni, meat loaf, dahl, plums, rice, beans, bread, biscuits, croquettes and green peas. There was Roman punch, cream, broiled spring chicken, browned potatoes and asparagus. Waldorf salad, ice cream, refrigerator, coffee, tea, cake, nuts and cigars. It was a laying on of the odds and was partaken of with a will.

The hotel was surrounded with salesmen, office clerks and mechanics, b. t. of whom were called upon to sell their goods in automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

After the appliances had subsided the employees were called upon in their order to give a short speech on the excellence of automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

Local Republican politicians say that in a short time Revenue Collector Bonnell, of the Terre Haute District, will be removed and that his successor will be a Cadillac owner our friends as well as our satisfied customers."

After the appliances had subsided the employees were called upon in their order to give a short speech on the excellence of automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

The three young women employed by the company, Miss M. L. Woodward, Miss M. A. Heib and Miss M. L. Young, were not present. Three of the men, John McElroy, Leslie Johnson and William Kirkpatrick, who had come to remain at the garage, were entertained with basket dinners from the hotel.

Mr. Barnett received his guests in the parlor of the hotel at 7 o'clock, by which time the feast had taken prepared. The menu began with spaghetti, gumbbo, celery and radishes, and proceeded down the line carrying with it baked macaroni, meat loaf, dahl, plums, rice, beans, bread, biscuits, croquettes and green peas. There was Roman punch, cream, broiled spring chicken, browned potatoes and asparagus. Waldorf salad, ice cream, refrigerator, coffee, tea, cake, nuts and cigars. It was a laying on of the odds and was partaken of with a will.

The hotel was surrounded with salesmen, office clerks and mechanics, b. t. of whom were called upon to sell their goods in automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

Local Republican politicians say that in a short time Revenue Collector Bonnell, of the Terre Haute District, will be removed and that his successor will be a Cadillac owner our friends as well as our satisfied customers."

After the appliances had subsided the employees were called upon in their order to give a short speech on the excellence of automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

The three young women employed by the company, Miss M. L. Woodward, Miss M. A. Heib and Miss M. L. Young, were not present. Three of the men, John McElroy, Leslie Johnson and William Kirkpatrick, who had come to remain at the garage, were entertained with basket dinners from the hotel.

Mr. Barnett received his guests in the parlor of the hotel at 7 o'clock, by which time the feast had taken prepared. The menu began with spaghetti, gumbbo, celery and radishes, and proceeded down the line carrying with it baked macaroni, meat loaf, dahl, plums, rice, beans, bread, biscuits, croquettes and green peas. There was Roman punch, cream, broiled spring chicken, browned potatoes and asparagus. Waldorf salad, ice cream, refrigerator, coffee, tea, cake, nuts and cigars. It was a laying on of the odds and was partaken of with a will.

The hotel was surrounded with salesmen, office clerks and mechanics, b. t. of whom were called upon to sell their goods in automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

Local Republican politicians say that in a short time Revenue Collector Bonnell, of the Terre Haute District, will be removed and that his successor will be a Cadillac owner our friends as well as our satisfied customers."

After the appliances had subsided the employees were called upon in their order to give a short speech on the excellence of automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

The three young women employed by the company, Miss M. L. Woodward, Miss M. A. Heib and Miss M. L. Young, were not present. Three of the men, John McElroy, Leslie Johnson and William Kirkpatrick, who had come to remain at the garage, were entertained with basket dinners from the hotel.

Mr. Barnett received his guests in the parlor of the hotel at 7 o'clock, by which time the feast had taken prepared. The menu began with spaghetti, gumbbo, celery and radishes, and proceeded down the line carrying with it baked macaroni, meat loaf, dahl, plums, rice, beans, bread, biscuits, croquettes and green peas. There was Roman punch, cream, broiled spring chicken, browned potatoes and asparagus. Waldorf salad, ice cream, refrigerator, coffee, tea, cake, nuts and cigars. It was a laying on of the odds and was partaken of with a will.

The hotel was surrounded with salesmen, office clerks and mechanics, b. t. of whom were called upon to sell their goods in automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

Local Republican politicians say that in a short time Revenue Collector Bonnell, of the Terre Haute District, will be removed and that his successor will be a Cadillac owner our friends as well as our satisfied customers."

After the appliances had subsided the employees were called upon in their order to give a short speech on the excellence of automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

The three young women employed by the company, Miss M. L. Woodward, Miss M. A. Heib and Miss M. L. Young, were not present. Three of the men, John McElroy, Leslie Johnson and William Kirkpatrick, who had come to remain at the garage, were entertained with basket dinners from the hotel.

Mr. Barnett received his guests in the parlor of the hotel at 7 o'clock, by which time the feast had taken prepared. The menu began with spaghetti, gumbbo, celery and radishes, and proceeded down the line carrying with it baked macaroni, meat loaf, dahl, plums, rice, beans, bread, biscuits, croquettes and green peas. There was Roman punch, cream, broiled spring chicken, browned potatoes and asparagus. Waldorf salad, ice cream, refrigerator, coffee, tea, cake, nuts and cigars. It was a laying on of the odds and was partaken of with a will.

The hotel was surrounded with salesmen, office clerks and mechanics, b. t. of whom were called upon to sell their goods in automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

Local Republican politicians say that in a short time Revenue Collector Bonnell, of the Terre Haute District, will be removed and that his successor will be a Cadillac owner our friends as well as our satisfied customers."

After the appliances had subsided the employees were called upon in their order to give a short speech on the excellence of automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

The three young women employed by the company, Miss M. L. Woodward, Miss M. A. Heib and Miss M. L. Young, were not present. Three of the men, John McElroy, Leslie Johnson and William Kirkpatrick, who had come to remain at the garage, were entertained with basket dinners from the hotel.

Mr. Barnett received his guests in the parlor of the hotel at 7 o'clock, by which time the feast had taken prepared. The menu began with spaghetti, gumbbo, celery and radishes, and proceeded down the line carrying with it baked macaroni, meat loaf, dahl, plums, rice, beans, bread, biscuits, croquettes and green peas. There was Roman punch, cream, broiled spring chicken, browned potatoes and asparagus. Waldorf salad, ice cream, refrigerator, coffee, tea, cake, nuts and cigars. It was a laying on of the odds and was partaken of with a will.

The hotel was surrounded with salesmen, office clerks and mechanics, b. t. of whom were called upon to sell their goods in automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

Local Republican politicians say that in a short time Revenue Collector Bonnell, of the Terre Haute District, will be removed and that his successor will be a Cadillac owner our friends as well as our satisfied customers."

After the appliances had subsided the employees were called upon in their order to give a short speech on the excellence of automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

The three young women employed by the company, Miss M. L. Woodward, Miss M. A. Heib and Miss M. L. Young, were not present. Three of the men, John McElroy, Leslie Johnson and William Kirkpatrick, who had come to remain at the garage, were entertained with basket dinners from the hotel.

Mr. Barnett received his guests in the parlor of the hotel at 7 o'clock, by which time the feast had taken prepared. The menu began with spaghetti, gumbbo, celery and radishes, and proceeded down the line carrying with it baked macaroni, meat loaf, dahl, plums, rice, beans, bread, biscuits, croquettes and green peas. There was Roman punch, cream, broiled spring chicken, browned potatoes and asparagus. Waldorf salad, ice cream, refrigerator, coffee, tea, cake, nuts and cigars. It was a laying on of the odds and was partaken of with a will.

The hotel was surrounded with salesmen, office clerks and mechanics, b. t. of whom were called upon to sell their goods in automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

Local Republican politicians say that in a short time Revenue Collector Bonnell, of the Terre Haute District, will be removed and that his successor will be a Cadillac owner our friends as well as our satisfied customers."

After the appliances had subsided the employees were called upon in their order to give a short speech on the excellence of automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H. Hasker, George Heffernan, Guy Hart, George Bower, Walter Ross, John D. Parker, John Miller, John O'Connor, Oscar Hougham, W. W. Weisberger, G. C. Oberdorf, James Casey, J. Muldoon, W. F. McDonald, George Younger, Ray Mattingly and H. A. St. John.

The three young women employed by the company, Miss M. L. Woodward, Miss M. A. Heib and Miss M. L. Young, were not present. Three of the men, John McElroy, Leslie Johnson and William Kirkpatrick, who had come to remain at the garage, were entertained with basket dinners from the hotel.

Mr. Barnett received his guests in the parlor of the hotel at 7 o'clock, by which time the feast had taken prepared. The menu began with spaghetti, gumbbo, celery and radishes, and proceeded down the line carrying with it baked macaroni, meat loaf, dahl, plums, rice, beans, bread, biscuits, croquettes and green peas. There was Roman punch, cream, broiled spring chicken, browned potatoes and asparagus. Waldorf salad, ice cream, refrigerator, coffee, tea, cake, nuts and cigars. It was a laying on of the odds and was partaken of with a will.

The hotel was surrounded with salesmen, office clerks and mechanics, b. t. of whom were called upon to sell their goods in automobile making and selling. Those who spoke were Irwin Smith, John H

EDITOR AGAIN

Col. W. P. Walton Acquires Lexington Gazette.

WILL TAKE CHARGE OF PROPERTY TO-DAY.

INJUNCTION SUIT AGAINST THE AUDITORIUM LEASE.

MANAGER SCOTT TO FILE IT.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 31.—(Special)—Col. W. P. Walton, until recently editor and proprietor of the Frankfort Journal, has bought a controlling interest in the Kentucky Evening Gazette of this city, and will assume charge to-morrow. It is understood that for the present there will be no change in the offices except that Charles L. Stewart will be succeeded as editor-in-chief by Col. Walton. Mr. Stewart will devote his attention to the Lexington Herald, of which he is general manager.

Col. Walton is well known in this city, where, after selling the Stanford Interiors Journal to his brother, E. C. Walton, about eight years ago, he removed and established the Morning Democrat, which after conducting several years, was sold to the Lexington Herald, and it was consolidated with that paper. Col. Walton then started the Frankfort State Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. Mr. Walton has the assistance of the Department of Lexington and the managing and general management of The Gazette, besides being the man to whom the confidence of the community. We are sure that he will make The Gazette from every point of view a better and more interesting and more popular newspaper.

Injunction Suit By Manager Scott.

Charles Scott, manager of the Lexington Opera House, announced to-day that he has determined to file suit for injunction restraining the Lexington Park Commissioners from using the Auditorium for a period of years at a rental of $600 a year, and as he also agreed to furnish a house for the commissioners to mean a net profit to the Park Commissioners of $1,200 a year. This proposition, he says, the Park Commissioners declined, although he claims it was practically the same in conditions and more liberal in price than the lease made with Mr. Perkins.

Certificates For Mine Foremen.

The result of the mine foremen's examination held last week has been announced in part, and the names of examinees six out of seventeen candidates being awarded certificates. Several applicants who took the examination have so far failed to comply with the requirements of the examination, as to their good character, accompanied by the Auditor's receipt for the State fee of $2.50. These should have been in before they were allowed to present with the examination. The board gave them further time to present their papers upon their assurance that they had overlooked the matter and were not aware of the requirements. Completion of the examination, papers of these men have, therefore, been withheld until they file their affidavits and receipts.

Those who have met all requirements and are passed with Thomas Allen, Muhlenberg county; C. W. Arnold, Muhlenberg county; Noah Burton, Carter county; J. E. Butler, Whitley county; D. J. Carnes, Bell county; D. C. Cleer, Boone county; J. A. Dillard, Muhlenberg county; A. W. McMillan, Muhlenberg county; P. W. Rice, Pike county; A. O. Roll, Muhlenberg county; R. Thornton, Laurel county.

These bring the total number of certified foremen in Kentucky holding merit certificates up to 202, and the consideration of the papers being held up may increase the number.

To Complete Ticket.

A call was issued to-day by the promoters of the Fusion ticket for the offices to be elected in this county next November for a mass meeting to be held next Saturday in each of the congressional and state election districts and constituencies for the purpose of nominating Fusion candidates for magistrate and constable. The call is signed by J. T. Wilkerson, chairman of the committee of independent Democrats, and by the chairman of the Republican county committee. The Fusionists have opened headquarters at 117 North Main street.

Lexington Notes.

Sum for $2,500 damages was filed in the Circuit Court to-day by John L. Murphy, a child 2 years old, by his next friend, John Murphy, against W. T. Sistrunk, a wholesale fruit dealer of the city. It is alleged the child was taken and beaten with a vicious bulldog belonging to the de-

Kaiser, Wilhelm II., Bremen; Potadam, Germany.

While sitting on his porch, John Bishop, of the Elmdorf farm, rocked back and forth a few days ago and fell to the ground. The impact affected the median nerve. Mr. Bishop's arms were paralyzed.

BUTCHER FOUND DEAD IN SLAUGHTER HOUSE.

Grewsome Spectacle Presented At St. Charles, Mo., When Body Is Discovered.

INJUNCTION SUIT AGAINST THE AUDITORIUM LEASE.

MANAGER SCOTT TO FILE IT.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 31.—(Special)—Col. W. P. Walton, until recently editor and proprietor of the Frankfort Journal, has bought a controlling interest in the Kentucky Evening Gazette of this city, and will assume charge to-morrow. It is understood that for the present there will be no change in the offices except that Charles L. Stewart will be succeeded as editor-in-chief by Col. Walton. Mr. Stewart will devote his attention to the Lexington Herald, of which he is general manager.

Col. Walton is well known in this city, where, after selling the Stanford Interiors Journal to his brother, E. C. Walton, about eight years ago, he removed and established the Morning Democrat, which after conducting several years, was sold to the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of the Lexington Democrat until it was purchased by the Lexington Herald. Mr. Newman is a Frankfort Journal, which he recently sold to J. L. Newman. While he was conducting the Frankfort Journal Col. Walton made his home in the city, and after the sale of that paper he became a stock broker and has been with the intention of retiring from journalism. Recently, however, negotiations were opened between him and the proprietors of the Gazette, which were closed to-day by his acquiring a controlling interest in the paper.

Gazette's Announcement.

At the head of its editorial column this afternoon the Gazette makes the following announcement of the purchase of Col. Walton.

Mr. W. P. Walton has acquired an interest in The Gazette that gives him full control of the property, and he will take charge immediately. He will be in the office of the newspaper and editorial columns of The Gazette and the general management of the paper. He will be particularly interested in editorial and news policy and for such obligations as may be incurred after September 1. Mr. Newman is known to the people of Lexington and the whole State, having been engaged in the newspaper business in Kentucky for a great many years. He is the son of one of the early editors of

Easy Victory FOR PIRATES

Chicago Cubs Shut-Out New York Giants by Close Score.

CINCINNATI REDS WIN AGAIN.

Detroit, Chicago and St. Louis Down Opponents, While New York and Cleveland Break Even.

RESULTS OF OTHER GAMES.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

American Association.

LOUISVILLE KANSAS CITY

TOLEDO MINNEAPOLIS

INDIANAPOLIS MILWAUKEE

COLUMBUS ST. PAUL

National League.

PITTSBURGH CHICAGO

BOSTON NEW YORK

CINCINNATI PHILADELPHIA

BROOKLYN ST. LOUIS

American League.

DETROIT NEW YORK

BOSTON CLEVELAND

CHICAGO ST. LOUIS

PHILADELPHIA WASHINGTON

Southern League.

NASHVILLE MOBILE

NEW ORLEANS MONTGOMERY

BIRMINGHAM ATLANTA

LITTLE ROCK MEMPHIS

Bluegrass League.

DETROIT LEXINGTON

RICHLAND FRANKFORT

MEMPHIS

SPEEDY TVILLE

Central League.

WHEELING GRAND RAPIDS

TERRE HAUTE FORT WAYNE

DAYTON ZANESVILLE

SOUTH BEND EVANSVILLE

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

DETROIT WASHINGTON

